A college loan from Fidelity National Bank.

If your son or daughter wants to go to college and you can't free up the cash right now, we can. We can do it with any one of a number of programs designed to lighten your financial load.

For example, you can choose a plan that lets you prepay college costs. Or a low cost loan that, in effect, is a pay-as-you-go program. And there's an extended payment plan that spreads educational costs comfortably over several years. Then there's a government guaranteed loan that requires no repayment until after graduation.

You can elect optional insurance coverage, too, that means the money will be there even if you aren't.

The important thing to know is this. Your boy or girl can start to college this Fall.

If you'll start by talking with us.

"ON THE WAGON"

Donna Franklin, 4, (above left), Roger Dale Franklin, 6, and Michael Wayne Franklin, sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dale Franklin and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Franklin, are really 'on the wagon' this time with hundreds of pounds of potatoes. The Franklins planted about 100 pounds of Irish cobblers, an early maturing variety and dug a small trailer load of "spuds." The potatoes in the photo are Kennebecs, a later maturing variety and both youngsters and grownups might readily agree that being "on the wagon"--when its loaded with freshly dug potatoes is a great spot to be -- in Appomattox or most anywhere else if there's a good cook around! By the way, Roger will be entering school on Tues. Sept. 7, one of many hundreds taking that big step toward personal maturity in Appomattox county.

'Admiral Of Upper Appomattox'

Father Darkleaf (retired publisher-editor Calvin Robinson) has long talked about his officers and men who man the ships on the "Upper Appomattox River", and here's proof that at least one resident, Reuben Almond (right) has the gear for the job! Reuben some time ago purchased this naval commander's hat, belt, epaulets and metal container. Then came along a visitor on a recent week end, Eddie Barron (left) of Arlington, Mrs. Lougenia Doss' son-in-law, who being a Navy veteran himself, said he would do some research to see just how old the Napoleon-type (turned sidewards) hat is and to which war it "belongs." Reuben Almond also purchased some time ago a book about Adolph Hitler and other WW II leaders in Germany, a rather rare edition in German which includes postcard like photographs attached to the pages rather than being incorporated into the printed page. Both items caused considerable stir at the T-VA office, and it would be interesting to find out more about both of Reuben's unusual possessions.
